

Announcements

10/6/17

Info

- 1) Students - do NOT jump up and hit the digital clocks in the hallways!! Consequences may be assigned for damage to school property.
- 2) UNM-PNM Math Contest - This year RRMS will be hosting Round 1 of this statewide mathematics contest on Friday, November 3rd, from 12-3pm. If you are interested in competing, talk to your math teacher. All participants will need to sign up online. Check out the link to the UNM-PNM math contest on our RRMS website. (<http://mathcontest.unm.edu/>) Prior test questions/answers are posted online. There are scholarships and opportunities offered to participants and winners. Sign up before October 30th.
- 3) Pennies for Patients: From now until the end of October, Student Council will be running a campaign to collect Pennies for Patients to help money for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society. Our goal is to raise $3000, and we will be sponsoring a homeroom competition and prizes to the top classrooms, as well as hosting several fun activities! Please watch the video I sent out after announcements are over to learn a little more about what the Leukemia and Lymphoma society is all about.
- 4) Students who eat breakfast in the cafeteria please pay attention. We have noticed students getting into line for breakfast after the bell rings in the morning. This is only acceptable if your bus is late. If not, you are expected to get in line the minute you get to school. Staff will be monitoring students who are getting line after the bell and may ask you to head to class. Teachers please reiterate this with your HR classes.
- 5) Starting Friday 10/20, NJHS will be sponsoring a jersey day every Friday through the football season. Students and teachers can wear their favorite college or professional team jerseys for a $1.00. Money will be collected through home room.
- 6) Trivia question from Friday: Titan, Enceladus, Mimas and Iapetus are moons orbiting which planet? Saturn. The winner of last week's free Dilly Bar is:

Sports

- 1) Football won a close one against ERMS on Saturday. Player of the game was Bailey Siverts who threw for 2 touchdowns and also had 1 interception on defense. Good job team, next up is a home game this Saturday vs Los Alamitos at 10 am.

Volleyball will finish up this Friday and Saturday at the Lms tournament. Good luck to them and thanks for a great season.

- 2) Wrestling: Will begin on October 30th and is open to boys and girls.
