

Announcements

11/29/17

Info

- 1) Overdrive now has new content, including some holiday fiction, a holiday cookbook, the second Heartbreakers book and more. After Friday, even more content will be available, including all requests that were submitted. Check out some ebooks or audiobooks - they are a great way to unwind on these colder winter days. If you need instructions, stop by the library to pick up the blue form.
- 2) Student Council and the library are hosting lots of activities to keep our spirits up and help us all de-stress. This Friday, we will be having an ornament maker-space during both lunches. For $1 you can make and take your own ornament. Next Thursday, the 7th will be the library's 4th annual cookie exchange. Look for flyers around the school and get in on the fun!! Stay tuned for info on more activities to come....
- 3) FYI: The Buy One, Get One free Book Fair is on its way! It will be here the week of December 11th, with an evening event on the 12th
- 4) Afternoon math tutoring is now in the library. Please meet at the flagpole at the end of the day and the tutoring staff will come meet you and bring you into the library. Parents will pick you up in front of the school from this point on. Please make sure to bring work for the designated time and understand that when you come to tutoring you are committed for the full time.
- 5) Trivia: Who came up with the three laws of motion? Isaac Newton

Sports

7th grade girls won last night at Academy 28-19.

Offensive player of the game Abby Armijo

Defensive player of the game Beth Mandaville

Substitute of the game Makalya Love

Special shout out to the dancing of Kenzie Begaye

8th grade girls lost a hard fought game in overtime.

Our 7th grade boys pulled out a tough game after trailing for most of the first half.

Great job boys and thanks for the hard work.

Our 8th grade boys were on the other end and fell short of victory. They battled hard against a very tough Alb Acad team. They continued to battle and pull close to the win, but ran out of time. They displayed great teamwork and drive.

We wish them both good luck today at ERMS.

The girls are home at 515 and 630 vs ERMS, and we wish them luck too.

Friday and Saturday we host the 8th grade girls tournament starting Friday at 2 pm.

Our wrestlers travel to Los Lunas this Saturday for a tournament.
