

Announcements

4/9/18

Info

- 1) Attention students. To help keep the cafeteria area clear and safe in the morning, you will be asked to either be in line for breakfast or having a seat to eat breakfast. Students that are just standing around in the hallway or the cafeteria will be asked to have a seat or exit to the courtyard. Also, we are seeing students get to the line after the bell with no valid excuse. If you eat breakfast here at RRMS, you are to get your breakfast first and then go outside.
- 2) Tomorrow in the library, CHS football Coach Ridenour will be here to talk about the Storm football program; interested 8th graders should come to the meeting at lunch to learn what they need to know to play next year.

The PBS focus for April is ACCOUNTABILITY. The winners for last month's focus are...

Quote of the Day:

If I could give one tip for people - it's not an exercise or nutrition regimen. It's to walk your talk and believe in yourself, because at the end of the day, the dumbbell and diet don't get you in shape. It's your accountability to your word. Brett Hoebel
